RESORT
2016

“I love dreaming about and preparing for a warm destination... Not just for obvious reasons, but because in my mind, the anticipation and planning of a trip: shopping for lighter clothes, deciding what to wear on the plane, even packing (so one doesn't have to unpack), are welcome distractions from the routines and rigors of a Northeast winter.

Yes, the places we go are lovely, but it is that ritual of the before coupled with memories of the after that help re-charge our batteries and leave us with lasting impressions until spring arrives.”

-Kevin McLaughlin
